YANKEE, I think runs southward and westward to Fort Pemberton. The course of the two rivers out of the fort is precisely in shape of a horseshoe—the fort closing as it were, between the neck or milks.

A PRISON CHANCE. A friend from Connecticut, tells us that one of the copperheads of that region being ambitious of parading his distasteful military life in the new style of his tribe, employed a Jeweler to make him a breastpin from the head of a piece of copper cent. The workman complied but first cut out the word "LIBERTY" and inserted "DEATH" in its place.

A NEW WARDEN OF THE STATE PRISON. It will be seen by our special despatch from Augusta, that Warren W. Rice, Esq. of Hampden, has been appointed Warden of the State Prison.

UNION MEETING FOR PUNQUATIQUE COUNTY. On Tuesday next, March 31st, a grand Union Assembly of the people of Puenquoague, will be held at Dover, commencing at 10 o'clock P. M. The Rev. Mr. Dyer is signally about two hundred loyal voters and interesting speakers will be present.

LYNDON, March 17th, 1868

Ed Editor:

At our annual Town Meeting held yesterday

the gross amount of misery inflicted by the Legislators is incalculable, but may be limited in part, by the passage of one hundred and fifty seven acts and eighty six resolutions. Ignorance says that the Kennecott and Portland smelter company have jeopardized the vacant lot, which stood the Kennecott House and will sit thereon a passenger depot, but Ignorance believes that it is not worth the while to believe report just yet.

lows:-

Such appeared to me to be the animus of the leaders in that meeting, for I listened carefully
and heard NO CONDEMNATION OF JEFF DAVIS OR HIS SO CALLED CONFEDERACY
OR OF ANY OF THE B A C T S, but the whole of what was said was in the spirit of the TIONS OF THE SOUTH, and CONFIDENT
NORTHERN IDEAS, and denunciation of North

It was enough to make a man who loves the native State proud with indignation and shame to hear such things said by a man born and reared here, a man who would stand up and vilify Free England, and especially Massachusetts, and a rise opportunity for a good bargain. Mr. Hunt without a leave the city, having purchased the "Small house at Boulton, and intending to occupy last favorite and excellent hotel early in the spring.

The most extraordinary thing in history is the fact that the Republican party is the one engaged in overthrowing the Government. It is the method of "Dan's Union" (the negro) no doubt instance of what a young lady may accomplish when she sets about it, the following may prove interesting to the many acquaintances of Mrs. Hiram L. Leonard, (daughter of H. A. Reed, Esq., of this city) who is now with her husband—a hunter of considerable celebrity—upon the Kennebec River. N. B. Having a strong ambition to kill a moose, she set out with her husband two or three weeks since from H. L. s. Lodge on a hunting excursion. The morning was very dewy below sea level [the morning was misty], and at night it rained so heavily, the dew lay below, when having traveled for some miles on snow-shoes she tumbled down in a snow-bank, a hole in which was clear of snow for the moment. A dog dragged

J N M. Brewer, Town Engineer for Newham

The steamer Harvest Moon arrived here Monday evening on her first trip up the bay. Her appearance corresponds with the flattering notices which have been published. The passengers and sailors were delighted to hear her whistle, and welcome her to her landing. She took aboard the Rockland Band, who went up to the wharfeport and back, and waved up the people on the shore, and that was all the excitement. They say the Harvest Moon, will sail on the water like a sea bird, and that her officers and accommodations are all that can be desired. Indeed, the Band does some exceedingly well. Frankly they found a Union meeting on the wharfeport, and the Harvest Moon to be a most peculiar way "look to their best," and kept the Band employed till next break o' day. On the return trip, the Harvest Moon reached her

WISTARS SALAD OF WILD CHERRY.
Cauliflower, Cabbage, Brussels, Artichoke, Crown Potatoes, Cauliflower, and the numerous salad as can be obtained of the Throat, Chest and all seasons, in our changeable climate, at all times of year, for the quantity enough to escape their fatal influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints—
perhaps prove that this salad is Wistars' Sal- ad an extent not found in any other remedy.
